DISCLOSURE

ON THE PROTECTION OF PERSONAL DATA PURSUANT TO ARTICLES 12 et seq. OF EU REGULATION 679/2016 AND OF THE DECREE OF 8 APRIL 2010 ON VIDEO SURVEILLANCE

Our Company has always been very attentive to the aspects of protection of personal data and regarding the principles of confidentiality and dignity of people.

Pursuant to the new EU Regulation 679/2016 and the Decree of 8 April 2010 on video surveillance, and in accordance with the principle of accountability, any processing of personal data must be lawful and fair. These principles imply that the data subject must be aware of such processing, its purposes and of the rights he/she may exercise.

For this purpose, the Data Controller shall provide the data subject with the information necessary to ensure the fair use in further compliance with the principle of accountability.

In light thereof, we would appreciate it if you would read the following disclosure.

Antonio Lupi Design S.p.a., with registered office at 73/75, Via Mazzini, 50050 Stabbia Cerreto Guidi (FI), tax code and VAT no. 04980750485, in its capacity as Data Controller, in the person of its interim legal representative, pursuant to EU Regulation 679/2016, hereby informs the data subject that the personal data which concern him/her, which have been collected by the Data Controller or which will be requested in the future and/or communicated by third parties, are necessary and will be used for the following purposes.

PURPOSES OF PROCESSING

Any personal data of the data subject that is collected via a video surveillance system and the use of the related equipment will be processed in case this is required for reasons of security (protection from theft, robbery, damage, intrusions).

METHODS OF PROCESSING AND OBLIGATION OF CONFIDENTIALITY

The processing of data shall be done with the use of IT tools and/or on paper, by persons who have a duty of confidentiality, with logic linked to the purposes of such processing and, in any case, in such a way so as to guarantee the safety and confidentiality of the data. The data collected will not be disclosed and disseminated to third persons, pursuant to the law.

DISCLOSURE TO THIRD PARTIES

Your personal data may be disclosed to third parties known to us solely and exclusively for the aforementioned and, in particular, to the following categories of persons:

- External companies who provide services on our behalf;
- Public bodies and administrations for the fulfilment of legal obligations;
- Professionals.

Said persons will process the personal data in the capacity of external Data Processor.

TERM OF RETENTION

The personal data of the data subjects will normally be retained for the time periods stipulated by law, i.e. 24 hours, or 48 hours on holidays when the offices are closed.

These same periods of time may be modified in response to public security requirements or may be placed at the disposal of the competent Authorities, exclusively as judicial evidence.

RIGHTS OF THE DATA SUBJECT

Pursuant to current legislation, the data subject may exercise his/her rights with the Data Controller, as such rights are stipulated by Regulation EU 679/2016, that is:

RIGHT OF ACCESS

art. 15

The data subject has the right to obtain from the Data Processor the confirmation that the personal data that concern him/her are being processed or not; in the former case, he/she may obtain access to the personal data and to the following information:

- a) the purposes of processing;

b) the categories of the personal data in question;

c) the recipients or the categories of recipients to whom the personal data has been or will be disclosed, especially if such recipients are third states or international organisations;

d) to the extent that this is possible, the period of time during which it has been foreseen that the personal data will be retained or, if that is not possible, the criteria used to determine such period of time;

e) the existence of the right of the data subject to request from the Data Controller the rectification or deletion of the personal data or the restriction of the processing of the personal data that concern him/her or to object to their processing;

f) the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority;

g) if the data has not yet been collected from the data subject, all the information available on their origin;

h) the existence of an automated decision-making process, including profiling, of article 22, paragraphs 1 and 4, and, at least in those cases, meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for the data subject.

1. In cases where the personal data is transferred to a third country or to an international organisation, the data subject has the right to be informed of the existence of the appropriate guarantees of article 46 related to the transfer.

2. The Data Controller shall provide a copy of the personal data that is being processed. For any further copies requested by the data subject, the Data Controller may charge a reasonable fee based on administrative costs. Where the data subject makes the request by electronic means, and unless otherwise requested by the data subject, the information shall be provided in a commonly used electronic form.

The right to obtain a copy shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION

art. 16

The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller without undue delay the rectification of inaccurate personal data concerning him or her. Taking into account the purposes of the processing, the data subject shall have the right to have incomplete personal data completed, including by means of providing a supplementary statement.

RIGHT TO ERASURE

1. The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller the erasure of personal data concerning him or her without undue delay and the Data Controller shall have the obligation to erase personal data without undue delay where one of the following grounds applies:

a) the personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purposes for which they were collected or otherwise processed;

b) the data subject withdraws consent on which the processing is based according to point (a) of article 6(1), or point (a) of article 9(2), and where there is no other legal ground for the processing;

c) the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to article 21(1) and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing, or the data subject objects to the processing pursuant to article 21(2);

d) the personal data has been unlawfully processed;

e) personal data has to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation in Union or Member State law to which the Data Controller is subject;

f) the personal data has been collected in relation to the offer of information society services referred to in article 8(1).

2. Where the Data Controller has made the personal data public and is obliged pursuant to paragraph 1 to erase the personal data, the Data Controller, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, shall take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform Data Controllers which are processing the personal data that the data subject has requested the erasure of any links to, or copy or replication of his/her personal data.

3. Paragraphs 1 and 2 shall not apply to the extent that processing is necessary:

- a) for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;
- b) for compliance with a legal obligation which requires processing by Union or Member State law to which the Data Controller is subject or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Data Controller;
- c) for reasons of public interest in the area of public health in accordance with points (h) and (i) of article 9(2) as well as article 9(3);
- d) for archiving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in accordance with article 89(1) in so far as the right referred to in paragraph 1 is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing; or
- e) for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

RIGHT TO RESTRICTION OF PROCESSING

art. 18

1. The data subject shall have the right to obtain from the Data Controller restriction of processing where one of the following applies:

- a) the accuracy of the personal data is disputed by the data subject, for a period enabling the Data Controller to verify the accuracy of the personal data;
- b) the processing is unlawful and the data subject opposes the erasure of the personal data and requests the restriction of their use instead;
- c) the Data Controller no longer needs the personal data for the purposes of the processing, but they are required by the data subject for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims;

d) the data subject has objected to processing pursuant to article 21(1) pending the verification whether the legitimate grounds of the Data Controller override those of the data subject.

2. Where processing has been restricted under paragraph 1, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with the data subject's consent or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims or for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person or for reasons of important public interest of the Union or of a Member State.

3. A data subject who has obtained restriction of processing pursuant to paragraph 1 shall be informed by the Data Controller before the restriction of processing is lifted.

RIGHT TO DATA PORTABILITY

art. 20

1. The data subject shall have the right to receive the personal data concerning him or her, which he or she has provided to a Data Controller, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and have the right to transmit those data to another Data Controller without hindrance from the Data Controller to which the personal data has been provided, where:

a) the processing is based on consent pursuant to point (a) of article 6(1) or point (a) of article 9(2) or on a contract pursuant to point (b) of article 6(1); and

b) the processing is carried out by automated means.

2. In exercising his or her right to data portability pursuant to paragraph 1, the data subject shall have the right to have the personal data transmitted directly from one Data Controller to another, where technically feasible.

3. The exercise of the right referred to in paragraph 1 of this article shall be without prejudice to article 17. That right shall not apply to processing necessary for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the controller.

4. The right referred to in paragraph 1 shall not adversely affect the rights and freedoms of others.

RIGHT TO OBJECT TO THE PROCESSING

art. 21

1. The data subject shall have the right to object, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her which is based on point (e) or (f) of article 6(1), including profiling based on those provisions. The Data Controller shall no longer process the personal data unless the Data Controller demonstrates compelling legitimate grounds for the processing which override the interests, rights and freedoms of the data subject or for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

2. Where personal data is processed for direct marketing purposes, the data subject shall have the right to object at any time to processing of personal data concerning him or her for such marketing, which includes profiling to the extent that it is related to such direct marketing.

3. Where the data subject objects to processing for direct marketing purposes, the personal data shall no longer be processed for such purposes.

4. At the latest at the time of the first communication with the data subject, the right referred to in paragraphs 1 and 2 shall be explicitly brought to the attention of the data subject and shall be presented clearly and separately from any other information.

5. In the context of the use of information society services, and notwithstanding Directive 2002/58/EC, the data subject may exercise his or her right to object by automated means using technical specifications.

6. Where personal data is processed for scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes pursuant to article 89(1), the data subject, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, shall have the right to object to processing of personal data concerning him or her, unless the processing is necessary for the performance of a task carried out for reasons of public interest.

Further to the aforementioned rights, the data subject shall have the right to lodge a complaint with the Supervisory authority where this is stipulated by law.
